SACRED CANTATA

The Crucifixion to Be Given at Grace Church, Friday Evening, March 26th.

On next Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock the sacred cantata, The Crucifixion, will be rendered by a large choir in Grace Church. The composer of the music is Sir John Stainer. The words of the cantata give the story of the sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer, opening with the scene in Gethsemane and closing with the Death on Calvary's Height. Two of the choruses are of special note. The Procession to Calvary, and The Appeal of the Crucified. The first comes at the beginning of the cantata with the words, Fling wide the gate, for the Saviour waits to tread in His royal way.

The second is at the conclusion, From the Throne of His cross, the King of grief
Cries out to a world of unbelief:
Oh! men and women, afar and nigh,
Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?

The choir which sing this cantata is composed of the following members:
Soprano—Misses Stranathan, Smith, Broyles; Mesdames McDonald, Frank, Maxwell.
Alto—Mesdames Green and Orr.
Tenor—Messrs Rice, and Tribble.
Bass—Messrs. Fitzgerald and Giboney.

Some idea of this music may be gathered from the fact that it has taken nearly three months of study and practice for the choir to be able to render this music.

The congregation will be furnished with leaflets giving the words of the music. A silver offering will be received at the door for missions in South Carolina, and the public is cordially invited to be present.

CENTRAL MUSIC FESTIVAL BOARD

Makes Statement With Reference to Attraction Held Last Week

The following statement was issued yesterday by the Central Music Festival Committee of the Chamber of Commerce:

To Whom it May Concern:

This committee in its endeavors to give to Anderson a musical festival was actuated by the best intentions and desires, and while several of the best attractions for a variety of unforeseen reasons failed to appear, it was no fault of the committee, and proper notice of the same was given to the public through the local press.

We believe that every purchaser of a season ticket, who attended the festival, received more than his or her money's worth. Miss MacLaren in her characterizations is generally recognized as the leading artist in America in her line, and certainly the magnificent production of "Paid in Full" was worth at least $1.50, not to speak of Peg O' My Heart. The Battis attraction in Dickens portrayal in America. The Hearns Sisters have for many years appeared at the leading Chautauquas in the country and Mrs. Vesey is quite well known as a lecturer and Chautauquist. The famous Skovgaard did not come, being unexpectedly taken sick in Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Varney and Mr. May were for some reason, not yet known to this committee, delayed in Florida.

So far as we are able, we carried out the program for which we contracted, and we might here mention that we suffered a financial loss of more than $350.00 on the festival. If, however, any one feels that they did not get their money's worth, the undersigned stand ready to refund what they paid without question. The Ladies' College Association, who so kindly and generously assisted us, did so with the highest motives, as did several of the better known local ministers. The Ladies College Association deserve our sincere thanks which we cordially extend them, and if there are any who may be disposed to blame them for the failure of some of the attractions to show up, we insist it was not their fault, nor ours, though we gladly accept the responsibility.

Respectfully,
MUSICAL FESTIVAL COMMITTEE.

DENVER SCHOOL

Well, the sun is still shining on old Denver school. And Denver school is still prospering as it always has done.

We wish to say that the social entertainment and box supper that we had on the night of March 12th, was a success, and we presume that all that were present enjoyed themselves. The amount of money that was raised was twenty-one dollars clear.

We have already begun preparing for the commencement for the close of school. We hope to have the best that was ever had at Denver school. We are expecting to have a game of ball with "Possum College" (Smith) pretty soon. We hope that the result will be in our favor.

We wish to thank the editor for the educational page, as we always like to hear how all the schools are prospering.

We are also trying to improve the school grounds. We have set out some trees and flowers.

In conclusion we wish to say that everything in the community is running very smoothly at present.

That there is no other tab show playing the larger tab show houses in Atlanta, Birmingham, and other Southern cities any better than this one. They played two weeks ago in the Bonita in Atlanta, and this last week in one of the largest tab show theatres in Birmingham, coming direct from Birmingham.
